

LIFT Your Engagement

From Agitated to Motivated!

Discover the 4 simple secrets of employee engagement that every team needs to know

Would you like to work in a team where people show pride in their work? Would you like to know how to use pre-determined goals and tactical milestones to improve employee engagement? Are you interested in knowing how to use reward and recognition effectively to boost morale and motivation. This engaging presentation combines the 'game of work' metaphor with cutting-edge research to deliver a powerful formula for employee engagement. Discover a suite of practical tools, tips and tactics that will help you shift your employees from agitated to motivated!

You will learn how to:

- Encourage people to show pride in their work and use discretionary effort to get the job done.
- Empower employees to take responsibility and show initiative.
- Create an environment that enables people to enjoy their work.
- Develop processes and practices to help people feel they are making progress.

David Koutsoukis

is a dynamic and engaging speaker and founder of the Exceptional Teams Academy. He has a proven track record in leading teams and has worked with top executives around the world. David has written more than 20 books and has spoken to audiences in 10 countries across 4 continents.

"Feedback from conference delegates was extremely positive and your keynote presentation was fresh and inspiring, while practical at the same time."

Bradley Woods, CEO, Australian Hotels Association