

LIFT Your Leadership

From Mediocre Manager to Likeable Leader!

Discover the 4 simple secrets of engaging leaders that every manager needs to know

Would you like to improve your ability to influence others? Would you like to be able to sell your ideas more easily? Would you like to know how to get your people excited about achieving your team's goals and objectives? This entertaining presentation combines ancient philosophy with modern neuroscience to deliver a powerful formula for engaging leadership. Discover tools, tips and tactics to boost your influence and help you shift from mediocre manager to likable leader!

You will learn how to:

- Boost your perceived competence by demonstrating intelligence, capability and authority.
- Boost your perceived trustworthiness by demonstrating professionalism, honesty and reliability.
- Boost your likeability by demonstrating humility, empathy and people skills.
- Boost your ability to inspire others through passion, encouragement and by creating excitement.

David Koutsoukis is a dynamic and engaging speaker and founder of the Exceptional Teams Academy. He has a proven track record in leading teams and has worked with top executives around the world. David has written more than 20 books and has spoken to audiences in 10 countries across 4 continents.

"David has a unique and refreshing approach to leadership development with an effective combination of high-level thinking and practical application."

Dan O'Neill, Chief Process Officer, Commonwealth Bank